CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

P In the name of the Father, and of the ☩ Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen

P Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you and worthily magnify your holy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

C Amen

P If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. But if we confess our sins, God who is faithful and just will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Silence for reflection and self-examination.

P Most merciful God,

C we confess that we are in bondage to sin and cannot free ourselves. We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. Amen

P Almighty God, in his mercy, has given his Son to die for us and, for his sake, forgives us all our sins. As a called and ordained minister of the Church of Christ, and by his authority, I therefore declare to you the entire forgiveness of all your sins, in the name of the Father, and of the ☩ Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen

SALUTATION AND PRAYER OF THE DAY

P The Lord be with you.

C And also with you.

P Let us pray...O God, you gave your only Son to suffer death on the cross for our redemption, and by his glorious resurrection you delivered us from the power of death. Make us die every day to sin, that we may live with him forever in the joy of the resurrection, through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

FIRST LESSON

Isaiah 25:6-9

⁶On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples
a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines,
of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear.

⁷And he will destroy on this mountain
the shroud that is cast over all peoples,
the sheet that is spread over all nations;

⁸he will swallow up death forever.

Then the Lord GOD will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth,
for the LORD has spoken.

⁹It will be said on that day,
Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us.
This is the LORD for whom we have waited;
let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

¹Hallelujah! When Israel came out of Egypt,
the house of Jacob from a people of strange speech,

²Judah became God's sanctuary
and Israel God's dominion.

³The sea beheld it and fled;
Jordan turned and went back.

⁴The mountains skipped like rams,
and the little hills like young sheep.

⁵What ailed you, O sea, that you fled,
O Jordan, that you turned back,

⁶you mountains, that you skipped like rams,
you little hills like young sheep?

⁷Tremble, O earth, at the presence of the LORD,
at the presence of the God of Jacob,

⁸who turned the hard rock into a pool of water
and flint-stone into a flowing spring.

SECOND LESSON

1 Corinthians 5:6b-8

^{6b}Do you not know that a little yeast leavens the whole batch of dough? ⁷Clean out the old yeast so that you may be a new batch, as you really are unleavened. For our paschal lamb, Christ, has been sacrificed. ⁸Therefore, let us celebrate the festival, not with the old yeast, the yeast of malice and evil, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

S102

Repeat alleluia

P The Holy Gospel according to St. Luke, chapter 24.

C Glory to you, O Lord.

¹³Now on that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, ¹⁴and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. ¹⁵While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, ¹⁶but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. ¹⁷And he said to them, "What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?" They stood still, looking sad. ¹⁸Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?" ¹⁹He asked them, "What things?" They replied, "The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, ²⁰and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. ²¹But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. ²²Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, ²³and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. ²⁴Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him." ²⁵Then he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! ²⁶Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?" ²⁷Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures.

²⁸As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. ²⁹But they urged him strongly, saying, "Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over." So he went in to stay with them. ³⁰When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. ³¹Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. ³²They said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?" ³³That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. ³⁴They were saying, "The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!" ³⁵Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

APOSTLES' CREED

A God has made us his children through our baptism into Christ. Living in trust and hope, together we confess our faith.

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

A Trusting in the renewal of all things through Christ's death and resurrection, we pray for the church, those in need, and all of God's creation.

A brief silence.

A God of life, awaken us to the celebration of new life in Christ. Open our hearts in this gathering around word and sacrament to your action for the life of the world. Hear us, O God.

After portion of the prayers:

A Hear us, O God.

C Your mercy is great.

P Into your wide embrace, O God, we commend all for whom we pray, trusting in the mercy you have shown us through Christ our Savior.

C Amen.

PEACE

P The peace of the Lord be with you always

C And also with you.

The people may move about and greet one another with the sign of Christ's peace and may say "Peace be with you."

OFFERTORY PRAYER

A Let us pray.

A Blessed are you,

C Holy God, you open the doors of heaven, giving us every generous and perfect gift from above. Lift our eyes from the food that perishes, and nourish us now with the food that endures for eternal life, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

P The Lord be with you.

C And also with you

P Lift up your hearts

C We lift them to the Lord

P Let us give thanks to the Lord our God

C It is right to give our thanks and praise.

P It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, for the glorious resurrection of our Savior Jesus Christ, the true Pascal Lamb who gave himself to take away our sin, who die destroyed death, and in rising has brought us to eternal life. And so, with Mary Magdalene and Peter and all the witnesses of the resurrection, with earth and sea and all their creatures, and with angels and archangels, cherubim and seraphim, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

SANCTUS

S108

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, heav-en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high-est. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

P In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

For as often as we eat of this bread and drink from this cup, we proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

C Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again. Amen.

LORDS PRAYER

P Lord, remember us in your kingdom and teach us to pray.

C Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Visiting Strangers, Friends, and Family: You are welcome here!

It is our joy to show hospitality to you. We welcome your presence among us and invite you to return. Our ushers are prepared to answer your questions or direct you to classrooms or the nursery. A nursery is provided for young children during the worship service and the education hour. Families with young children are encouraged to sit near the front so that the children can see and participate fully in the worship service.

We believe our Lord's real presence is in the sacrament of Holy Communion. The Lord's Supper is a meal for forgiveness of sin and eternal life; thanksgiving for what God has done in Christ Jesus specifically 'for you.' All baptized persons, at Christ's invitation are invited to the table. Children who commune in another parish may commune here. Please bring non-communing children forward to receive a blessing.

To have information printed in the bulletin: please contact David Taylor at d_taylor4444@hotmail.com or call 943-9227. Written announcements can also be left in the top basket in the church office. Please always give your name and contact number with each announcement. Please have information in by Thursday morning for the following Sunday.

Synod Participant Needed: if you are interested in attending the annual Synod meeting in Roanoke June 3-5 please contact the Pastor or Jim Sheets today.

Signs of Spring: It is mowing season again. All flowers, ground cover, etc. that is on the grass around the headstones in the church cemetery needs to be removed by May 1, 2011. Any items that interfere with mowing will be discarded. Contact Bill Cox 886-4655.

SOLES4SOULS: The Evangelism Committee of Pleasant View would like our members to contribute shoes for the needy worldwide. The shoes can be new or used, adult or children sizes. A collection box will be in the Sunday School wing. Soles4Souls is a Nashville-based charity that collects shoes from the warehouses of footwear companies and the closets of people like you. The charity distributes these shoes to people in need, regardless of race, religion, class, or any other criteria. Since 2005, Soles4Souls has given away nearly 12 million pairs of new and gently worn shoes (currently donating one pair every 7 seconds.) Soles4Souls is a 501(c)(3) recognized by the IRS and donating parties are eligible for tax advantages. Anyone can join our cause, and we need your help. Visit <http://www.soles4souls.org> or contact Michael Vayvada 280-7952 or vay@cfw.com.

Pleasant Memories: will meet Wednesday, April 27 and noon at Traditions. Come and enjoy good food, fellowship, and an interesting speaker from Blue Ridge Community College. Due to the increased cost of food the restaurant has found it necessary to increase the cost of the meal by $.50. The total cost of the meal is $11.35.

Women of the church: The next meeting of the Pleasant View Women of the ELCA will be a breakfast meeting at 8:30 a.m. on Tuesday, May 10 at Shoney's. The program will be presented by a representative from New Directions. All Pleasant View women are invited to attend and bring a friend.

Change for Hope: The council has determined that on the first, third and fifth Sundays of the month that the children will be invited to receive "Change for Hope." This offering will be used for outreach ministry as determined by the council. On the second and fourth Sundays of the month we will have "Children Time" with the pastor.

The Worship and Music Committee: meets the First Sunday of the month at 9:30am in the Sanctuary.
